"Louisiana Tech has a really great foundation of excellence, and we're not starting from scratch by any means. We've got so many of the ingredients in place. My vision is to continue to progress Louisiana Tech in national prominence, but to turn that national prominence into things that bring benefit to North Louisiana, to our citizens of this state and to all of the students and stakeholders of the university."

-- Dr. Les Guice, University President

QUARTER SYSTEM – BIG ADVANTAGE FOR THE STUDENT-ATHLETE

Louisiana Tech has a unique advantage of being on the quarter system as opposed to the semester system. The quarter system provides significant advantages for the students:

- Lighter workload (take 3 classes instead of 5)
- Shorter academic sessions (12 weeks instead of 18)
- More frequent breaks during and between academic sessions
- More opportunities to withdraw or drop a class and still remain TOPS eligible

LOUISIANA TECH...

AMBER McCRAY

HEAD COACH

First Season

On December 12, 2018, former Florida All-American Amber McCray was named the 10th head coach in Louisiana Tech volleyball history.

McCray comes to Ruston after building Panola College into a nationally ranked program, leading the Fillies to 169 wins and two National Junior College Athletic Association national tournament appearances (2016, 2017). She was one win away from the national tournament in three other seasons at Panola.

"After bringing Amber to our campus, we feel strongly she fits the championship culture we strive for at Louisiana Tech," said Director of Athletics Tommy McClelland. "She is a proven winner everywhere she has been from her playing days at Florida to the last eight years at Panola. Her philosophy runs parallel to ours when it comes to building champions on the court, in the classroom and in life. We are very excited to have her as part of the LA Tech Family."

McCray spent the past eight seasons at Panola – six as the head coach – earning conference Coach of the Year honors in 2014 and 2016 and Region XIV District H Coach of the Year honors in 2016 and Region XIV District I Coach of the Year honors in 2017. She guided the Fillies to a seventh place finish in the national tournament in 2016 and a ninth place finish in 2017.

The 2016 team won 35 matches and was ranked No. 1 in the country in the NJCAA Division I polls over the final three weeks of the season. It marked her second 30-plus win season at Panola as the 2015 team also accomplished the feat – the first for the program in more than a decade.

"I am honored and beyond blessed for the opportunity to lead the Lady Techster volleyball program," said McCray. "In just a short time on campus, I was convinced Louisiana Tech is a special place and can provide the family atmosphere and support system I've been so grateful for and accustomed to for the past eight years at Panola College.

"I want to thank Tommy McClelland, Mary Kay Hungate and everyone involved in the hiring process for trusting my coaching principles and style to replicate success at the four-year level, and I'm excited to see what new heights we can all achieve together."

During her time at Panola, McCray coached 28 1st or 2nd team Region XIV all-conference performers, 19 Region XIV academic all-conference honorees and two NJCAA All-Americans. Panola volleyball had a 100 percent graduation rate for volleyball student-athletes enrolled at the school through all four semesters during McCray's tenure.

McCray spent two years as an assistant coach at Panola (2011-2013) prior to being promoted to the head coaching position in 2013. She has also spent the past eight years coaching club volleyball teams in east Texas.

"We are excited for Coach McCray and the opportunity to go to Louisiana Tech University," said Panola College Director of Athletics Don Clinton. "As a Louisiana Tech alumni, I am a little partial to Tech and proud the university has made the decision to have her as their coach. Amber was a huge part of building our program and maintaining it as a national power on the court and off. She will always be part of the Panola College family, and we wish her and Tech the best of luck."

As a student-athlete at Florida (2003-07), McCray was a two-year captain and a member of five straight Southeastern Conference championship teams (including a medical redshirt season). She was a member of the team that advanced to the national championship game in 2003. She was named second team All-American in 2006 and two-time all-Southeastern Conference in 2006 and 2007.

"The theory that the best teammates make for the best coaches is proven daily in Amber," said Florida head coach Mary Wise, whose 931 career wins ranks No. 1 among women in NCAA volleyball history. "Her talents will be recognized not only on the court, but in the relationships she builds with her players. What a great hire by Louisiana Tech."

McCray also excelled off the court, earning ESPN The Magazine 2nd Team Academic All-American honors in 2007, ESPN The Magazine Academic All-District honors from 2005-2007, and SEC Academic Honor Roll from 2004-2007. McCray was nominated to represent the entire UF athletic program at the NCAA Leadership Convention in 2006, and her efforts in the Gainesville community earned her a spot on the SEC Community Service Team in 2007.

As a senior, McCray also received the Tracy Caulkins Award, presented to UF's top graduating female student-athlete who possesses the traits of academic achievement, athletic achievement, leadership and involvement in the community.

McCray was a decorated three-sport athlete for Pine Tree (Texas) High School, becoming the state of Texas' first two-time recipient of the Gatorade High School Volleyball Player of the Year Award in 2001 and 2002.

JANE HAYS

ASSISTANT COACH

First Season

On Wednesday, January 16, Louisiana Tech head volleyball coach Amber McCray announced the addition of Jane Hays to the coaching staff. Hays will take charge as the lead assistant and recruiting coordinator for the program.

"I am thrilled to have the opportunity to bring Coach Hays on board with me here at Louisiana Tech," McCray remarked. "In our six years working together at Panola, every day I witnessed firsthand the passion she has for recruiting, training and pouring into the student-athletes in our program. She was instrumental in our success there, and I am confident her competitive drive and relentless desire to keep learning more will be an incredibly valuable asset to our team here, as well."

Hays comes to Louisiana Tech after spending the previous six seasons as McCray's assistant at Panola College. While at Panola, she worked primarily with the team's outside hitters and defense, while helping guide the program to two National Junior College Athletic Association (NJCAA) national tournament appearances.

Prior to her time at Panola, Hays spent two successful seasons as an assistant at her alma mater of East Texas Baptist University where she aided former Panola volleyball standout and current UT Tyler Head Coach Lyndsay Simpson Mashe in bringing in the program's top recruiting class in 2012 and again in 2013 by adding players from some of the premiere club programs in Texas.

The Tigers won or shared two ASC East Division titles during her career and advanced to the postseason every year during that span with Hays serving as a valuable team leader both on and off the court.

Hays' awards were not limited to just her athletic ability; she was a three-time All-ASC Academic selection, Distinguished Scholar Athlete selection, and a nominee for the prestigious 2010 NCAA Woman of the Year award.

Serving as a three-year captain, Hays is the only player in ETBU volleyball history to rank in the top 10 all-time in kills, digs and aces. She ranks fourth all-time in career kills and digs with 1,432 kills and 1,227 digs, and third all-time in aces with 141.

WILLIAM TATGE

ASSISTANT COACH

First Season

On Tuesday, March 26, Louisiana Tech head volleyball coach Amber McCray announced the addition of William Tatge to the coaching staff.

"I knew Coach Tatge had the potential to be the perfect fit for our program from the first conversation I had with him, and each interaction since has continued to confirm that," McCray remarked. "We believe we are truly blessed to be able to add someone with his extensive coaching experience on various levels, in addition to his detailed knowledge of the technical aspects of the game. Coach Tatge's genuine passion for motivating and developing student-athletes on and off the court directly aligns with our core values and vision for Louisiana Tech volleyball, and we can't wait to move forward together."

Tatge joins the Lady Techsters staff after spending the 2018 season as an assistant under Geoff Carlston at Ohio State. Prior to his time with the Buckeyes, Tatge spent three seasons as the head women's volleyball coach at Lees-McRae College in Banner Elk, North Carolina. Tatge, who was also an assistant coach for the men's volleyball program, boasts a coaching background that spans across two continents.

"I am thrilled and honored to have the opportunity to be a part of the Louisiana Tech women's volleyball program," said Tatge. "Throughout the interview process I was thoroughly impressed with both Coach McCray and Coach Hays. My time on campus only worked to reaffirm not only the coaching staff's desire to create a holistic atmosphere for the volleyball program, but also the rest of the athletic staff's mindset and their desire to put students first. I would like to thank Coach McCray and the athletic administration for giving me this opportunity, and I look forward to a very bright future here at Louisiana Tech."

CONFERENCE USA

2019-20

Conference USA continues to compete and promote the success of its student-athletes. The league has adapted to the ever-changing landscape of collegiate athletics in its 25-year history, but the commitment to excellence, integrity, leadership and its student athletes in competition, academics and community is unwavering.

Conference USA enjoys a far-reaching fan base with its 14 members: Charlotte, FIU, Florida Atlantic, Louisiana Tech, Marshall, Middle Tennessee, North Texas, Old Dominion, Rice, Southern Miss, UAB, UTEP, UTSA and WKU.

Debuting in 1995, Conference USA teams have combined for 106 bowl appearances in football, 108 NCAA Tournament appearances in basketball, including three Final Fours, 73 NCAA baseball appearances including six College World Series berths, 92 NCAA soccer tournament appearances including four trips to the College Cup, and 40 individual national champions in track and field and cross country.

Success is not limited to athletic achievement as more than 237 Conference USA student-athletes have garnered Academic All-America honors, and more than 794 have achieved academic all-district laurels and thousands of student-athletes have earned a college degree.

Conference USA sponsors competition in 19 sports – nine for men (baseball, basketball, cross country, football, golf, soccer, tennis, and indoor and outdoor track and field) and 10 for women (basketball, cross country, golf, soccer, softball, swimming and diving, tennis, indoor and outdoor track and field, and volleyball).

The league promotes the scholar-athlete ideal, honoring outstanding academic achievement with numerous conference-sponsored awards, including the Commissioner's Honor Roll and the Commissioner's Academic Medal as well as sport-specific All-Academic teams.

C-USA annually awards postgraduate scholarships, along with the Sport Academic Awards, Scholar-Athletes of the Year and the Institutional Academic Excellence Award. Additionally, Conference USA presents a Spirit of Service Award three times each year, recognizing student-athletes who excel on the field, in the classroom and give back to the community through significant service efforts and participation.

The conference's footprint is concentrated with 14 members in 10 states and a combined area population of more than 30 million. With a commitment to community involvement, the conference developed several initiatives to maintain strong ties in C-USA cities, as well as with fans and alumni across the country. C-USA schools also place a priority on giving back to their communities through volunteer service with local and national organizations. Individually, student-athletes are recognized each season through the Spirit of Service award.

The league has also had 40 national champions in NCAA track and field competition, one national champion in diving, and numerous NCAA individual and team competitors in cross country, golf, swimming, tennis, and track and field. Overall, Conference USA teams and individuals have made more than 2,000 NCAA appearances.

SUCCESS OFF THE FIELD

C-USA institutions are among the nation's best in academic performance of student-athletes, bolstered by the fact that student-athletes at league schools have a higher graduation rate than the general student population. Among C-USA's 5,000 student-athletes, there are champions off the playing field as well. In 23 years, more than 37,000 student-athletes have been named to the Commissioner's Honor Roll or received the Commissioner's Academic Medal, indicative of outstanding achievement in the classroom. Honor Roll is awarded to student-athletes that have achieved a 3.0 cumulative GPA or above, while Academic Medal recipients have achieved a 3.75 cumulative GPA or above.

C-USA ON TV

Conference USA enjoys significant exposure through various multimedia partners. Partnerships include CBS Sports Network, Stadium, ESPN and Facebook. The multi-tiered selection process that is rooted in partnering with all entities has substantially increased the number of national, regional and digital appearances for football, men's and women's basketball, and several Olympic sports. C-USA membership includes 10 institutions in the Top 75 television markets, seven in the Top 40 markets and five in the Top 25 according to SNL Kagan. C-USA home markets include more than 13 million TV households with a total population of more than 30 million people.

C-USA IN THE COMMUNITY

Conference USA values the performances of its student-athletes on and off the playing field. The league also places an emphasis on cultivating relationships in C-USA member communities through volunteer service and has implemented several initiatives designed to maintain strong ties within our communities, as well as with fans and alumni across the country. Individually, student-athletes are recognized each season through the Spirit of Service award.

GOVERNANCE

Conference USA has significant representation in the NCAA governance structure. The presidents of the member institutions serve as the league's Board of Directors.

A PROUD HISTORY

C-USA was formed in 1995 and quickly emerged as one of the nation's top conferences. The conference unveiled its name, logo and commissioner April 24, 1995, in Chicago. The league's charter members were Charlotte, Cincinnati, DePaul, Houston, Louisville, Marquette, Memphis, Saint Louis, Southern Miss, Tulane, UAB and USF. Eleven of the institutions began athletic participation in 1995, while Houston joined competition in the fall of 1996.

The league's headquarters were established in Chicago and, after nine years, relocated to the current office in Irving, Texas. Britton Banowsky was named Commissioner in October 2002, succeeding Mike Slive, the league's first Commissioner. In October 2015, Judy MacLeod became the league's third Commissioner.

C-USA added East Carolina (September, 1996) and the United States Military Academy (March, 1997) as football members. ECU began league competition in 1997; Army in 1998 and UAB began football play in 1999. The league brought in TCU and ECU (1999) for all sports and they began competition in 2001. USF started C-USA football in 2003. Marshall, Rice, SMU, Tulsa, UCF and UTEP became full-time C-USA members for all sports in 2005.

In 2013, charter member Charlotte returned to C-USA and was joined by new members FIU, Florida Atlantic, Louisiana Tech, Middle Tennessee, North Texas, Old Dominion and UTSA. WKU joined the league on July 1, 2014.

LAST SEASON IN REVIEW

KAITLYN ADAMS ENTERS LA TECH RECORD BOOKS

The Louisiana Tech volleyball team saw a career-high 31 kills from junior Kaitlyn Adams en route to a 3-2 (25-17, 19-25, 25-14, 18-25, 15-12) triumph over Oral Roberts.

Adams finished the Oral Roberts (3-7) contest with a career-high 31 kills, and entered the Tech record books with the second-most kills in a single match in program history (most in the rally scoring era). Prior to Adams' performance, the last Lady Techster to reach 30 kills was Shannon Phillips in 2007. Even more impressive was Adams' efficiency with which she operated, finishing the match with a .443 hitting percentage (31-4-61) on the way to the second-most kills in Conference USA last season.

ADAMS RECOGNIZED ON CONFERENCE-USA VOLLEYBALL ALL-ACADEMIC TEAM

Junior outside hitter Kaitlyn Adams was honored for her achievements in the classroom, as she was one of 11 student-athletes voted to the 2018 InTouch Credit Union Conference USA Volleyball All-Academic Team, the league office announced Tuesday afternoon.

"Congratulations to Kaitlyn for achieving this award," head coach Adriano de Souza remarked. "This is a result of her efforts and responsibility with her work in the classroom and on the volleyball court."

Adams, who leads the Lady Techsters with a 3.885 cumulative GPA, finished the 2018 campaign with the most kills (247) and most kills per set (2.78) on the team.

The chemistry major also put together a historic performance earlier this season, notching 31 kills in Tech's match against Eastern Washington, setting a new LA Tech volleyball record in the rally scoring era. The 31 kills were the second most among all C-USA players this year.

AMBER MCCRAY NAMED LA TECH VOLLEYBALL COACH

McCray comes to Ruston after building Panola College into a nationally ranked program, leading the Fillies to 169 wins and two National Junior College Athletic Association national tournament appearances (2016, 2017). She was one win away from the national tournament in three other seasons at Panola.

"After bringing Amber to our campus, we feel strongly she fits the championship culture we strive for at Louisiana Tech," said Director of Athletics Tommy McClelland. "She is a proven winner everywhere she has been from her playing days at Florida to the last eight years at Panola. Her philosophy runs parallel to ours when it comes to building champions on the court, in the classroom and in life. We are very excited to have her as part of the LA Tech Family."

McCray spent the past eight seasons at Panola – six as the head coach – earning conference Coach of the Year honors in 2014 and 2016 and Region XIV District H Coach of the Year honors in 2016 and Region XIV District I Coach of the Year honors in 2017. She guided the Fillies to a seventh place finish in the national tournament in 2016 and a ninth place finish in 2017.

JANE HAYS ANNOUNCED AS LA TECH VOLLEYBALL ASSISTANT COACH AND RECRUITING COORDINATOR

Hays comes to Louisiana Tech after spending the previous six seasons as McCray's assistant at Panola College. While at Panola, she worked primarily with the team's outside hitters and defense, while helping guide the program to two National Junior College Athletic Association (NJCAA) national tournament appearances.

"I am thrilled to have the opportunity to bring Coach Hays on board with me here at Louisiana Tech," McCray remarked. "In our six years working together at Panola, every day I witnessed firsthand the passion she has for recruiting, training and pouring into the student-athletes in our program. She was instrumental in our success there, and I am confident her competitive drive and relentless desire to keep learning more will be an incredibly valuable asset to our team here, as well."

Prior to her time at Panola, Hays spent two successful seasons as an assistant at her alma mater of East Texas Baptist University where she aided current UT Tyler Head Coach Lyndsay Simpson Mashe in bringing in the program's top recruiting class in 2012 and again in 2013.

On Nov. 22, 1975, Les Guice, the future president of Louisiana Tech University but at the time a Tech junior architecture major, put a metaphorical but very visible exclamation point on two of his life's biggest loves.

First, he married to Kathy May, now his wife of 43 years, in south Arkansas.

Second, the very newly newlyweds immediately headed to Ruston to watch Louisiana Tech's football team play Arkansas State. In the cold and rain.

Tech lost. Les and Kathy didn't.

Several diplomas, three sons and three grandchildren later, they are still going strong and leading their alma mater to new heights.

Dr. Guice and Tech share a rich history together that spans five decades and has produced family ties that are deeply rooted in a passion for the Bulldogs and Lady Techsters. From an architecture student stepping on the campus for the first time in 1972 to an appointment as Louisiana Tech's 14th President in 2013, Guice has shown an unwavering commitment to leadership and service to his alma mater.

One of Guice's first achievements at Tech was earning a bachelor of arts in architecture in 1976. Discovering a passion for engineering under the mentorship of professor Jack Painter, Guice went on to earn a master's degree in civil engineering from Tech in 1978 and decided to pursue teaching and education as his profession.

His dedication to his students, his faculty and the University would lead to his appointment as dean of Tech's College of Engineering and Science (COES) in 1999. As Dean, Guice continued to encourage and support innovations in the curricula. The College's faculty became increasingly successful in securing external funding for the integrated curriculum which resulted in a transformative redesign of curricula throughout the College.

Guice's leadership and vision also reinvigorated the Engineering and Science Foundation to more effectively serve the needs of the College. He initiated a new integrated strategic plan, known as "COES 2010," and capital campaign, "Tech's BEST," that led to funding for an Eminent Scholar Chair, 15 Professorships, a $500k Scholarship Fund, and several new laboratories and facilities.

With a focus on the future and a progressive vision for economic development, Guice has led the planning and development of the Louisiana Tech Enterprise Campus, a research park connecting the University and downtown Ruston. Enterprise Campus' first building, Tech Pointe, was completed in 2012 and is now home for several companies and organizations; another building to house emerging companies is already needed.

Because of a revitalized relationship between the City of Ruston and the University, and thanks to the Ruston citizens and friends and supporters of Tech, the partnership has resulted in about $300 million in investments, private and public, during the past two years. Much of that growth is due to Tech's problem-solving, opportunity-seizing president.

As president, Guice is the chief executive officer of north Louisiana's only Carnegie Foundation national research university and one of only two public universities from Louisiana recognized in the top tier of national universities by U.S. News and World Report.

Throughout his career, Guice has contributed to and played a central role in creating the culture and vision for the future of Tech; he continues that commitment as president. His focus on campus-wide engagement and building and growing relationships, plus his leadership in forging a path toward advancement of the University's academic and athletic programs, research and commercialization activities, and economic development efforts means that Louisiana Tech University's best days are yet to come.

Since stepping on campus in July of 2013, the cornerstone of Louisiana Tech Director of Athletics Tommy McClelland's leadership has been the philosophy of building champions on the playing fields, in the classrooms and in life.

While leading Louisiana Tech into the Conference USA era, McClelland impacts the athletics department through fundraising, facility improvements, coaching hires and overall student-athlete development.

If the past five years are an indication, McClelland's philosophy is paying dividends in Ruston.

In fact one could argue that since his arrival in Ruston, Louisiana Tech has seen its most impressive five-year run since the 1970s. Over the past five years, the University has seen postseason appearances by football, men's basketball, women's basketball, baseball, softball, golf and track and field.

During his time in Ruston, the Louisiana Tech programs have all taken strides forward on the playing fields, highlighted by:

Football – the Bulldogs are one of just four teams nationally that have won a bowl game in each of the past four years, joining Clemson, Wisconsin and Utah. Since 2013, Tech has had more players selected in the NFL Draft than any other Conference USA program.

Men's Basketball – the Bulldogs were one of just 13 teams in the nation to record 23-plus wins five straight years (Tech won 17 this past year). Tech won a pair of regular season conference titles during this stretch.

Women's Basketball – Head coach Brooke Stoehr (a former Lady Techster great) led the program to back-to-back Women's National Invitation Tournament appearances and top four finishes in the C-USA regular season.

Baseball – Louisiana Tech has won 35-plus games for three straight seasons, the longest such streak since the 1980s while making its first NCAA Regional appearance in 30 years when the Bulldogs won 40-plus games and reached the Starkville Regional finals in 2016.

Softball – the Lady Techsters have recorded four straight 30-plus win seasons for the first time in two decades. Tech won its first Conference USA Tournament title in 2017, earning a spot in the 2017 NCAA Tournament in the Tuscaloosa Regional where it took No. 1 ranked Minnesota to extra innings before falling.

Men's Golf – the 2016 Bulldog golf team shocked everyone in route to capturing the Conference USA team title (its first since 1980) and clinching the program's first ever appearance in the NCAA Regionals. Victor Lange became the first Bulldog to ever earn three straight strips to the NCAA Regionals.

Louisiana Tech was one of only seven FBS schools in the country to have 9-plus football wins, 20-plus MBB wins, 35-plus baseball wins and 35-plus softball wins (one of only two non-Power 5 teams to accomplish it: BYU) during the 2016-17 campaign.

That same season Tech also became only the second C-USA program to finish in the top 5 in football, women's basketball, men's basketball, baseball, softball and soccer in the same season in league's history (East Carolina, 2012-13).

2015-16 also saw some impressive achievements.

Louisiana Tech joined Florida, Florida State, Ohio State and Ole Miss as the only five Football Bowl Subdivision schools to recorded 9-plus wins in football, 20-plus wins in men's basketball and 40-plus wins in baseball.

It was also one of only 12 FBS programs to play in the postseason in each of those three sports, joining Florida, Connecticut, Florida State, Texas Tech, Texas A&M, Ohio State, Washington, Duke, Arizona, Utah and Miami (Fla.).

Pretty elite company.

Off the field, Louisiana Tech student-athletes have blossomed in the classroom as well.

During McClelland's time in Ruston, a total of 726 LA Tech student-athletes have been recognized on the Conference USA Commissioner's Honor Roll while another 173 have earned the C-USA Academic Medal, including a record 47 in 2017-18.

Louisiana Tech senior soccer star Katie Sloan was named the 2016 CoSIDA Academic All-America of the Year for Division I Women's Soccer, becoming the first student-athlete in LA Tech history to receive this prestigious honor.

The University has also seen its athletic programs continue to earn high marks in both the NCAA's annual Academic Progress Report (APR) and Graduation Success Rate, ranking among the state and conference leaders in many of these marks.

Perhaps the most tangible sign of McClelland's impact at Louisiana Tech are in facilities with the addition of the $23-plus million Davison Athletics Complex and the $18-plus million press box and luxury suites at Joe Aillet Stadium. These two new facilities not only changed the landscape of football game-day in Ruston but also produce more than $1.2 million in additional revenue per year for LA Tech Athletics.

In addition to the new construction, the department has seen upgrades and renovations to many of its other athletic facilities, such as the addition of the $1.2 million Paul Millsap Vision presented by Community Trust Bank, a high definition video display board in the Thomas Assembly Center. The project also included a customized sound system for the Thomas Assembly Center and a video board control room, utilized for both football and basketball.

Louisiana Tech Athletics has also seen record numbers in private giving in each of the last four years, including surpassing $1.6 million in giving to the Louisiana Tech Athletics Club (LTAC) for the first time ever this past year. Tech has also seen record numbers in most LTAC donors in the past three years.

During the 2013-14 fiscal year, McClelland spearheaded the efforts in raising more than $10.8 million through both LTAC and Quest for Excellence; more than double any previous year in Tech Athletics history. Included in the record total were five, seven-figure gifts.

Louisiana Tech also made the announcement in the fall of 2015 that it partnered with Adidas America, Inc. to establish a transformational 5-year exclusive agreement that outfits all 16 NCAA men's and women's programs in Adidas uniforms, apparel, footwear and equipment through the 2020-2021 athletics season.

During his time in Ruston, McClelland has also groomed a pair of newly named athletic directors in Lamar AD Marco Born and Florida Atlantic AD Brian White. Both Born and White served on McClelland's senior staff during their time in Ruston.

Prior to coming to Ruston, McClelland made a national name for himself after quickly elevating to the athletics director position at age 26. He earned high praise from a number of high-profile experienced athletic administrators.

"Tommy McClelland is an outstanding leader and one of the nation's rising stars in intercollegiate athletics," said Bubba Cunningham, athletics director at the University of North Carolina. "He has a demonstrated commitment to supporting and developing his coaches and student-athletes and has already become well-known among ADs for his leadership, vision and character. Tommy has also shown a dedication to lifelong learning and the application of his skills and talents to making his athletic programs better."

Prior to being named athletic director at McNeese State on March 19, 2008, McClelland served as interim athletic director and assistant athletic director of internal affairs at the university.

In his time at McNeese, McClelland and his staff had numerous success stories when it came to increased revenue streams and the overall game-day experience in Lake Charles. He raised more than $3 million in private donations, and he was instrumental in increasing corporate sponsorships to nearly $1 million, while securing new clients and multi-year sponsorships.

McClelland was also responsible for increasing football season ticket sales: the program eclipsed the 8,000 mark in 2008 with a high of 8,035 in 2009. In addition, he was instrumental in setting single-game attendance records in baseball, volleyball, softball, soccer, women's basketball and women's tennis.

"Tommy is a rising star in the college athletics administration field and, in my view, the ideal leader to advance Louisiana Tech's athletics program as it transitions into Conference USA," said Liberty Athletics Director Ian McCaw. "He possesses impeccable integrity and has an extraordinary work ethic. Moreover, his interpersonal and relational skills are outstanding and will enable him to quickly connect with Bulldog fans as well as campus and community leaders."

One of McClelland's main goals was to improve the life of the student-athletes and increase the game-day experience for the McNeese State fan base. One of the most effective ways to accomplish these goals was by improving the facilities. During his time at McNeese State, he oversaw a combined total of over $11 million dollars in facility renovation and new construction.

The combination of increased revenue streams, renovations and new construction, and a highly-involved fan base led to plenty of success stories on the playing fields. During his tenure as athletic director, McNeese won Southland Conference championships in football (2007, 2009), soccer (2006, tournament; 2007, regular season), softball (2010, tournament; 2013, regular season), men's basketball (2011, regular season), women's basketball (2011, regular season; 2011 and 2012 tournament) and men's cross country (2012). The women's basketball program made its first appearances ever in the NCAA Tournament, and the men's basketball program hosted the first round of the NIT postseason tournament (Boston College live on ESPNU).

Even more impressive is the fact that while the Cowboy and Cowgirl programs were capturing titles on the fields, the University's student-athletes were making tremendous strides in the classroom. In five of McClelland's six years as athletics director, McNeese State led the Southland Conference in the number of student-athletes named to the Commissioner's Honor Roll.

In addition, McClelland guided the resurgence in APR success in Lake Charles. The number of athletic programs boasting the required APR score of 925 went from four in his first year to all 16 in his final year. The community service hours performed by the MSU student-athletes also tripled to more than 3,000 during his tenure.

"Tommy has a great knowledge of college athletics and excels at helping his student-athletes balance and succeed in their commitments to academics and athletics," said Michigan Athletics Director Warde Manuel. "Tommy has also proven his ability to work effectively with coaches and administrators to help his programs be successful."

McClelland earned his bachelor's degree from Northwestern State in 2004 and completed his master's degree in sports administration in 2005. He walked on with the Demons football team and eventually earned a scholarship; he also competed in the javelin for the NSU track and field team.

The native of Basile, Louisiana served as a graduate assistant at Northwestern State in athletics and also worked at the Southland Conference office as an administrative intern, assisting with championship events.

McClelland is also a 2012 graduate of the Executive Program of the Sports Management Institute and attended instruction at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill's Kenan-Flagler Business School and the University of Southern California's Marshall School of Business.

McClelland is married to the former Jessica Stokes of Garrison, Texas. They have two sons, Lawson (8) and Grayson (7).
